ORIGINAL LOVE BOAT CAST
CHRISTENED REGAL PRINCESS

In a spectacular ceremony in Fort Lauderdale on 5 November 2014, the original Love Boat cast members christened Regal Princess.

Princess Cruises has a history of illustrious godmothers for past ships, including Diana Princess of Wales (who named the first Royal Princess in 1984), Audrey Hepburn, Sophia Loren, Margaret Thatcher and Olivia de Havilland. More recently in 2013, The Duchess of Cambridge named Royal Princess, Regal Princess' sister ship, in Southampton.

SIGNATURE FEATURES

THE SEAWALK

The ship's most distinguishing design element is an over-water SeaWalk, a top-deck glass-bottomed enclosed walkway on the ship's starboard side extending more than 28 feet beyond the edge of the vessel. You can enjoy dramatic views to the sea 128 feet below.

SABATINI'S

Princess' signature Tuscan-inspired speciality restaurant is known for its celebrated pastas, seafood and Italian specialities.

VINES

Vines wine bar pours as many as 30 different wines by the glass, plus serves up a selection of tapas to accompany the many vintages.

PRINCESS THEATRE

The largest Princess Theatre ever, with unobstructed sight lines from every seat, the theatre offers high-definition screens and a brand new lighting system to enhance each show and seat 925 guests.

DRAMATIC ATRIUM

The social hub of the ship, the soaring atrium offers a vibrant collection of always-changing quick bites and light meals, beverages, entertainment, shopping and guest services. New features such as Bellini's Italian cocktail bar, Ocean Terrace seafood bar, and a gelateria add to the Piazza's lively atmosphere.

CHEF'S TABLE LUMIERE

Princess is now setting a new standard for the chef's table experience with the debut of the Chef's Table Lumiere in which passengers will be magically surrounded by a curtain of light – providing a soft wall of privacy that envelopes diners as they savour the chef's special menu.

WATER AND MUSIC SHOWS

The ship's central pool area features daily and nightly performances of four separate themed sequences comprised of dancing fountains, special music and live performers. The Movies Under the Stars screen is also incorporated as an additional show element.

PRINCESS LIVE!

The ship's new television studio, a first for Princess, features programming throughout the day from 8am until midnight. Passengers can enjoy live talk shows, demonstrations and performers here, including the daily Wake Show.

HORIZON COURT BUFFET

One of Princess' most popular casual dining options, the Horizon Court buffet on Regal Princess has been redefined with a completely new layout. Action stations offer up intriguing choices such as Asian cuisine, Mediterranean dishes, a pasta corner and salad-tossing stations. Diners can also indulge in new speciality experiences at the Crab Shack and Fondues.

HORIZON BISTRO PASTRY SHOP

The Horizon Court introduces an industry first: a dedicated pastry shop. Here passengers can indulge in fresh-baked goodies throughout the day and even get to see Princess' pastry chefs in action as they demonstrate their skills in chocolate work and cake decorating.

PRIVATE CABANAS

New private cabana options give passengers the opportunity to personalise their relaxation time, with elegant cabanas in The Sanctuary and poolside cabanas at the Retreat Pool. Cabana guests looking for a gourmet treat can order one of the ship's new cabana picnic baskets, packed with artisan edibles paired with a premium wine.

INTERNATIONAL CAFÉ

As on most Princess ships, the International Café serves up fresh-baked pastries, panini sandwiches, salads, fresh-baked cookies specialty coffees, and sweet desserts.

BELLINI'S

This brand new Italian-inspired cocktail venue is a perfect place to enjoy the lively atmosphere of the atrium's activities while indulging in a Bellini-inspired drink. Passengers will also enjoy views of the Piazza below in this "floating" space.

ALFREDO'S

Alfredo's pizzeria keeps up Princess' reputation for serving, 'The Best Pizza at sea'. Aboard Regal Princess the sit-down restaurant features an expanded menu and more spacious seating, perfect for enjoying the fresh toppings and crisp crusts of a personal pizza right from the eatery's stone oven.

CROONERS

Princess' famed 1960s-style martini bar offers a menu of more than 75 unique martinis, shaken tableside. Gourmet olives, speciality drinks and live piano entertainment add to the "Rat Pack" era feel.

CROWN GRILL & WHEELHOUSE BAR

The Crown Grill premium seafood and chop house has been blended with the popular Wheelhouse Bar for a complete evening of dining and entertainment in one location. With its signature theatre-style open kitchen, the Crown Grill sets the stage for a menu of chops, seafood and premium Sterling Silver steaks.

VISTA LOUNGE

This lounge hosts a variety of top-notch entertainers each night, from live bands to comedians and illusionists, plus themed parties and special events.

THE SANCTUARY

On Regal Princess, The Sanctuary adds four private Sanctuary Cabanas for a more luxurious experience, plus two Lotus Spa Cabanas offering an elegant private space for a range of spa treatments. Serenity Stewards provide healthy refreshments and music players with peaceful music.

MOVIES UNDER THE STARS

This is currently the largest screen at sea, measuring 34 feet wide by 20 feet high. Naturally Princess' signature poolside theatre will have a variety of movies and concerts playing on the big screen. Relax on a comfortable lounge nestled under a cosy fleece blanket and snack on complimentary fresh-popped popcorn or delicious cookies and milk.

REGAL PRINCESS FUN FACTS

To construct Regal Princess it took:

- 3 million man hours
- 37,000 tons of steel - more than 3 times the amount of steel in Los Angeles' Disney Concert Hall
- 4,000 km (2,484 miles) of electrical cable - enough to travel between the Princess Cruises offices near Los Angeles and New York City
- 360,000 litres (95,000 gallons) of paint - more than twice what is reportedly used per year on the Golden Gate Bridge
- 200 tons of marble - more than 30 times the amount of marble in Michelangelo's famous David statue

Regal Princess has:

- A top speed of 23 knots - equal to 26.5 miles per hour
- 15,000KW of transverse (sideways) thruster power - the original Love Boat, Pacific Princess had a forward propulsion power of about 13,500KW. So Regal Princess can go faster sideways than that ship could travel forward
- An anchor that weighs 14 tons
- The SeaWalk glass is 28mm (1.1 inch) thick - more than 4 times thicker than the average car windshield glass

How big?

- 1,083 feet long - longer than the height of the Eiffel Tower
- 217 feet high - taller than London's Tower Bridge

How much?

- 600 pounds of butter used each day
- 1,500 pounds of flour is used each day to create the ship's fresh-baked bread, homemade pasta and pastry shop treats
- 4,000 pieces of art onboard
- 18,000 bottles of wine and champagne in the wine cellars
- 54,600 napkins washed per week
- 21,200 bath towels washed per week
- 250,000 eggs used per week
- 3 tons of ice used to carve 20 sculptures per cruise
- 170,000 pounds of fresh fruits and vegetables consumed per cruise
- 900,000 pounds (about 20 truckloads) of supplies loaded every 10 days

BEHIND THE SCENES IN THE GALLEY

On Regal Princess, we have two main galleys, one for each speciality restaurant and one fully equipped Lido Galley. It all starts with a shopping list consisting of food from all over the world. On a single cruise, the list usually consists of between 110 and 115 tons of food that must be delivered to the ship.

Fish preparation area - three butchers clean and portion the fresh catch. • Average amount of fish prepared daily: 1,700

Meat preparation area - five butchers, three assistants and helpers slice and portion beef and poultry. Average amounts of meats cooked daily: • Poultry 1,400 lbs. • Veal 300 lbs. • Beef 1,700 lbs. • Lamb 200 lbs. • Pork/ Pork Products 1,400 lbs.

Garde manger - this is where all cold dishes and salads are prepared. Eleven crewmembers work in this area. The average daily amounts used are as follows: • Salads 1,600 lbs. • Shrimps 400 lbs. • Mayonnaise 13 gals. • Sandwiches 1,500 each

Soups, pastas and vegetables - thirteen members of the galley crew prepare seasonal vegetables, fresh pastas and soups. The average daily amounts used are as follows: • Pastas 500 lbs. • Potatoes 2,700 lbs. • Vegetables 2,500 lbs. • Soups 550 gals.

Bakery - ten bakers utilise dough mixers, ovens, refrigerators and special proofing ovens. The following fresh breads are baked from scratch daily: • Sweet Rolls • Bread Rolls • Croissants • Vol-au-Vents • Bread Sticks • Biscuits • Pizza Average amount of flour used daily: 1,500 lbs.

Pastry shop - during the day, thirteen people perform their craft here, while four work steadily at night. The average amounts prepared daily are as follows: • Assorted pastries 6,000 • Ice cream 100 gals • Cakes and pies 300

Fruit and cheese pantry - six members of the galley crew work here. In addition they wash, slice and prepare all the fresh fruit that is presented and served daily. Average daily amounts used are as follows: • Butter 400 lbs. • Fresh fruits 6,000 lbs.

Coffee pantry - a team of three keeps the automatic coffee and espresso machines working during meal times. Average amounts consumed daily are: • Coffee 470 gals. • Coffee cream 62 gals. • Sugar 400 lbs.

Dishwashing area - a total of fifty-seven people work continuously throughout all the ship's galleys pre-washing, sorting and feeding a constant stream of china, glasses, silver, pots and pans into the dishwashing machines. In the sculleries, ten workers scrub and polish all of the specially constructed oversized pots, and sauté and braising pans. Silverware is cleaned and polished through the night so that the surfaces achieve a fine finish for the following day. • Average amount of dishes washed daily is 70,000 and glasses 21,500.

Is this all? Well, not quite. After our passengers are served, then it's time to feed our family of over 1,100 crew members!

WHERE IS REGAL PRINCESS GOING NEXT?

On 29 April 2018, Regal Princess arrived back in Copenhagen from the Caribbean to begin another summer season sailing 11-night cruises, taking in the wonders of Scandinavia and Russia from Copenhagen, Berlin (Warnemünde) and St. Petersburg.

After this, she'll set sail on her repositioning 14-night voyage from Copenhagen, arriving in New York on 22 September. Regal Princess will then embark on a series of cruises to the colourful destinations in Canada & New England alongside her sister ship, Royal Princess.

On 1 November, Regal Princess will make her way from New York back to sunny Fort Lauderdale for another season in the Caribbean, sailing around the eastern and western islands, until April 2019. Next summer, she'll be back in Northern Europe for yet another season of Scandinavia & Russia itineraries.

BEST WI-FI AT SEA

In November 2017, Regal Princess became the first Princess ship to preview the exclusive and innovative Ocean Medallion technology, with select guests being able to experience a truly personalised and hassle-free holiday. One of the great enhancements implemented onboard Ocean Medallion-enabled Regal Princess is the MedallionNet Wi-Fi, voted the Best Wi-Fi at Sea!
